Nomination Committee

Terms of Reference

1. Constitution

The Board has established a committee of the Board known as the Nomination Committee (the "Committee"), being a permanent committee of the Board.

2. Membership

2.1 Members of the Committee are appointed by the Board. The Committee shall consist of at least three members, the majority of whom should be independent non-executive directors.

2.2 The Board shall appoint the Committee Chair who should be either the Chair of the Board or an independent non-executive director.

2.3 The Chair of the Board shall not chair the Committee when it is dealing with the matter of succession to the chair role.

3. Secretary

The Company Secretary, or their nominee, shall act as the Secretary of the Committee and will ensure that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration to be given to issues.

4. Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be two members.

5. Meetings

5.1 The Committee shall meet at least twice a year and at such other times as the Committee shall require.

5.2 Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of the Committee Chair or any of its members.

5.3 Any non-executive director, irrespective of whether they are a Committee member or not, has the right to attend a meeting of the Committee. However, other individuals may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate.

6. Voting

Decisions of the Committee will be made by a majority vote. In the event of an equality of votes, the Committee Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

7. Responsibilities

7.1 The Committee shall:

- (a) regularly review the structure, size and composition of the Board including the balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity (including gender, ethnicity and social background) and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes;
- (b) give full consideration to succession planning for directors and other senior executives in the course of its work, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Company, and the skills and expertise needed in the future;
- (c) oversee the development of a diverse pipeline for succession of directors and senior management.
- (d) be responsible for identifying and nominating for the approval of the Board, suitable candidates to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise;
- (e) before making a nomination, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates the Committee will:
 - i. consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;
 - ii. consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the role;
 - iii. have due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board, including gender, ethnicity and social background; and
 - iv. consider using open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search for a Chair or a non-executive director;
- (e) keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, to ensure the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- (f) review annually the time required from non-executive directors. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties;
- (g) ensure that on appointment to the Board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board Meetings;
- (h) oversee the performance review of the Board, Committees and individual directors.

- (i) review the results of the board performance review process that relate to the composition of the Board; and
- (j) work and liaise as necessary with all the other Board committees.

7.2 The Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning:

- (a) plans for succession for both executive and non-executive directors and in particular for the key roles of Chair and Chief Executive (but see (g) below);
- (b) suitable candidates for the role of senior independent director;

7.1 membership of the audit, remuneration and sustainability committees, and any other board committees as appropriate, in consultation with the Chair of those committees;

- (c) the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required; no director may take part in any discussion, or vote, in respect of their own reappointment;
- (d) the re-election by shareholders of directors under the annual re-election provisions of The UK Corporate Governance Code or the provisions in the Company's articles of association, having due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required and the need for progressive refreshing of the Board (particularly in relation to non-executive directors being re-elected for a term beyond six years); no director may take part in any discussion, or vote, in respect of their own reappointment;
- (e) any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the Company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract; no director may take part in any discussion, or vote, in respect of their own reappointment; and
- (f) the appointment of any director to executive or other office other than to the positions of Chair and Chief Executive, the recommendation for which would be considered at a meeting of the full Board; no director may take part in any discussion, or vote, in respect of their own reappointment.

8. Reporting Responsibilities

- 8.1 The Committee Chair shall report to the Board on the main items of business addressed at each Committee meeting.
- 8.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where it considers action or improvement is needed.
- 8.3 The Committee shall make a statement in the annual report about its composition, number of meetings and attendance, activities, the process used to make Board appointments and explain if neither an external search consultancy nor open advertising has been used in the appointment of the Chair or a non-executive director.
- 8.4 The Committee Chair shall attend the AGM and shall answer questions, through the Chair of the Board, on the Committee's activities and responsibilities.
- 8.5 The Committee Chair shall seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.
- 8.6 The Committee shall produce a report to be included in the company's annual report describing the work of the Committee, including:
- (a) the process used in relation to appointments, its approach to succession planning and how both support the development of a diverse pipeline
 - (b) how board performance review has been conducted, the nature and extent of an external evaluator's contact with the board and individual directors, the outcomes and actions taken, and how it has influenced or will influence board composition
 - (c) the Diversity, Inclusion and Equality Policy its objectives and linkage to company strategy, how it has been implemented and progress on achieving the objectives, and
 - (d) the gender balance of those in the senior management team and their direct reports.

9. Other

The Committee shall, at least once a year, review its own performance, constitution and terms of reference to ensure it is operating effectively and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

10. Authority

10.1 The Committee is authorised by the Board to:

- (a) seek any information it requires from any employee of the Company in order to perform its duties; and
- (b) obtain, at the Company's expense, outside legal or other professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference, and such advisers may attend meetings as necessary.
